

ACCREDITATION, APPROVAL, AND LICENSURE OF INSTITUTION AND PROGRAMS

History

The West Virginia Junior College, originally Capitol City Commercial College, was established on September 1, 1892. The College was originally established to train students in secretarial and business office skills and has undergone changes in location and curriculum through the years to keep up-to-date with the changing need of area employers. Current program offerings include information technology, legal and allied health majors in addition to the traditional business-oriented programs. In 2001, the College established an additional campus in Bridgeport to secure the career training needs of north central West Virginia residents.

Accreditation is a complex subject. This institution is "institutionally" accredited by a national accreditation agency. Other types of accreditation include regional institutional, and programmatic accreditation. The type of accreditation can impact important student benefits, such as academic credit transfer and graduate job eligibility. Prospective students should direct any accreditation questions to the Campus President before enrolling.

Note: For the most current information regarding Approval/Accreditation/Authorization, please ask the Campus President.

Students have the right to review all documents describing accreditation, approval, or licensing. A request for such review should be made to the Executive Director of the campus. The Executive Director will make accreditation, approval, and or licensing documents available for review at an agreed upon time and location.

Statement of Legal Control

The West Virginia Junior College, Inc. in Charleston WV is a private corporation. WVJC operates an additional campus at 176 Thompson Drive, Bridgeport, WV 26330. It has no other campuses and is not legally affiliated with any other public or private organization or educational institution. The Campus President is charged with responsibility to manage all aspects of the campus operation and to exercise such discretion as he/she deems appropriate, within the broad guidelines and policies established by the Board of Directors. The institution's corporate officers execute legal documents and perform other similar ministerial functions as required of corporate officers by law. No corporate officer has managerial or administrative responsibility and is not in the chain of command, unless he or she also holds the position of Campus President.

Institutional Operating Standards

The following standards have been adopted by this institution to govern its operations and establish expectations for all employees:

To provide quality value-added service to our students,
To exhibit a high level of ethical standards in every action taken and statement made,
To comply with all federal, state or other laws, rules or regulations,
To operate in the progressive, professional manner required in a competitive, worldwide marketplace while always maintaining the above three principles.

While these standards are general in nature, they reflect the institution's expectations that all employees and representatives act with integrity, honesty and fairness at all times. This applies to both conduct involving students and fellow employees as well as to the general public, the government, and all regulatory agencies and their staff. The institution recognizes that its reputation is its most valuable asset, and its reputation depends on the actions of its employees, hence, the above-stated requirements.
