

The institution prides itself in maintaining good relations with its students. It is our goal that you, our current or former student, be completely satisfied with our institution, but we recognize that good faith differences of opinion can occur. Recognizing that each student is a unique individual with different needs, concerns, and perceptions, it is the policy of this institution to attempt to meet students' needs and concerns if the Institution is reasonably able to do so. To resolve disputes quickly, fairly, and in good faith the Institution has developed a Dispute Resolution Procedure. Please see the Dispute Resolution section of the enrollment agreement and catalog for more details.

Contact information for receipt of consumer complaints by the appropriate state authority or state approval agency for the state in which the student resides is listed below.
